Jolly Roger Flying After Winning Visit

A visit to this year's London boat show has won 747 pilot Roger Brown an all-areas pass to a pontoon that packs a punch...

For he's the winner of our competition, securing a membership package worth £5000, giving him access to our £500,000 fleet of sailing yachts for a year.

He says: "We were looking to get a bigger boat, but this will be a great way to decide what to go for next, with long term trials. That sort of experience isn't usually easy to get."

Of the five-strong Pure Latitude fleet, which includes a First 27.7 and an X37, Roger currently has his eye on the Dufour 34 and is looking forward to trying out the 6.5m rib. With the £5,000 Membership he's won, he is set to get around 25 days of sailing over the coming year.
